

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the freedom of speech in action.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need a counterbalance to the liberal, left wing bias of such news outlets as ABC, CBS, NBC, etc. If 60 minutes can air biased hatchet job against conservatives, then conservatives should have the right to fight back in the marketplace of ideas and make a difference.
